

CERNING FARMERS.

Adams sold last week to Chenault, ten mule colts at $95. in Eagle.

Total acreage sown in wheat in 1889 was 4,909,717; the in 1888, 44,009,002 bushels.

Salter has bought of different thirteen good cotton mules, 104 high, at $112—Lancaster News.

Complaints have been made against cotton planters in Texas for importing Mexican labor to harvest their Small boy now yearning for the gather walnuts—not that he the nuts, but he loves to get his full of status.—Paris News.

semi-annual sales of shortworn Association in Lexington, small prices. The first head sold for $4,500, an average single county, suckling mules, $50 hogs, $3 to $1200-lb. cattle, $3.15,

Government of Chilli has enacted laws, abolishing import duties on the tools and for the use of agriculture, mining, trades and industries, rails and railway cars.

Farmers' Alliance of Georgia claims that the lute com has been renewed on a larger scale and has called a meeting to discuss against the success of the Heraldo, City of Mexico, editorial columns, advocating exclusion of cattle imported from the United States. It says that it is impossible for Mexican cattle to compete with Americans in market.

The crowd was in attendance at the sale of John S. Gill's personal property on Wednesday, and everything was sold. Auctioneer, W. M. Kerby, said the sale amounted to about $100,000.

We give a few of the principal hairs, $28. 1 pair mules, $309; 4 mares, $301; 1 bay horse, $135; 18 to $25; calves and yearlings to $25—Lancaster News.

Regular feature in the mule colic the difference made between a mare and mare mule. Several years a mare mule brought about $5 than a horse mule of the same.

The difference has gotten larger till now, we are told that in the stock, that at least $40 difference in value of a mare of sex in the same grade of.

This is a horse mule will bare $50 to $65, when had it been a mares would beg for it at $55 to Anderson News.

E. Madden and Leonard Brown, a Sismeede stock farm, purchased of Judson H. Clark, of the stock farm Elmira, N. Y., the brown stallion Macey, 2.29, Belle Clay, by Kentucky Clay, that good mare Mary Amy, 2.22; second dam Betty the Brown, 2.22; and the mare, the Lucy Macey, 2.24; and a yearling bay, sixteen hands high and a fine horse. He will stand at Els-$25,000.

Commissioner of Agriculture
the corn crop: "Taking the r's returns as a basis, the total of this crop, for 1888, was 2,362,
and the total yield was 51,505.54
In 1889, according to our respondents, the acreage has been 11 per cent, over 1888, and the yield in condition, as expressed in bushels, is 24 per cent. These data make the total acreage in 1889, 99—an increase of 252,290 acres
—and the total yield in bushel 59,267,362, or a total increase in the State, over '88, of 3,761, bushels.<sup>27</sup>

35,000 acres of land have been planted in sorghum cane in Kansas—the entire chemical crops of the State. The Department, twenty-eight years ago, there was to make it the product. A few days ago Secretary Rusk received advices from them that the cane had yielded
the results, some of it showing

12 per cent. is sufficient to the profitable production of The Secretary was highly elated this report, and believes that the Agricultural Department's experiment will revolutionize the sugar country if the results keep they have begun.

Some years the price of Short-tile has steadily declined and reached a point where they paid for the trouble and expense of using them. In view of the extremely low prices this class of stock

D. Golf last Christmas determined to send a draft from their fine to the Pacific slope as an experiment. The sale of these cattle was last week, and the prices realized justify the repetition of the experiment. One hundred and ten were an average price of $105. Col. Timmonson was the auctioneer.—San Francisco Chronicle.

"Lawn," the elegant home of the late W. T. Withers, near Lexington, was sold privately, Friday, to Mr. A. McCann, of Lexington, for a net price of $105,000. The farm is 144 acres, and was the home of the stallions Almont and Happy, and now has on it the great brood mares, Noble Medium, Aleto, horses on the place, which will in October, and it is confidently expected that they will bring about $100,000. There is an elegant residence farm, and the stables are splendid, with all of the latest improvements. Mr. McCann is the owner of great stallions Red Wilkes, Patchen, Bluegrass Wilkes, and

THE PALACE.

NOT QUEEN VICTORIA'S, BUT ONE WHERE

NEW AND STYLISH

FALL DRESS GOODS

Are had to suit the Queen's taste. But a Queen's pocket-book is not necessary to buy them.

THE PALACE

—QUOTES PRICES THAT—

Can't Be Considered High.

IN FACT THEY ARE ACKNOWLEDGED BY ALL TO BE THE

LOWEST POSSIBLE.

Cloaks and Jackets to Suit Every Taste.

THE PALACE

—HAS A BIG LINE OF—

BOOTS AND SHOES,

for which it has no room, and they must go.

HATS AT YOUR OWN PRICE.

ODESDALE.

ODESDALE ADDITION IS NOW ON THE MARKET. LOTS WILL BE SOLD ONLY TO GOOD PEOPLE. NONE ELSE NEED APPLY.

Twenty-Six Lots, 50x250 Feet,

Sold on following terms: Twenty-Five Dollars cash, balance in installments of $1.50 on Saturday of each week, to be paid to Dr. W. G. White, Secretary of the Richmond B. & L. Corporation, who will receipt for the money. No interest will be charged on the purchase money until after the expiration of six months from date of sale, thereafter 6 per cent. will be charged on the purchase money remaining unpaid. By this method parties can buy and pay for their lots at a small price, on easy terms, without interest and free of city taxes. Any person in Richmond can buy one or more of these lots and pay for them as they like it is now selling at. The city is rapidly extending in that direction and will ultimately absorb Eodesdale. For further information call on

W. G. WHITE, E. W. WIGGINS or STEPHEN D. PARRISH, Richmond, Ky.

THE BEAUTIFUL ORIENT!

20 OTHER DIFFERENT STYLES AND PATTERNS ARE NOW AT P. M. POPE'S STORE.

is receiving more daily, and intends to sell all of them.

TO POPE'S.

enter's Work.

City Tax Notice.

If you do not pay your City tax before the first day of November, 1889, I will be compelled by law to collect a penalty of ten per cent additional. Call and pay.

THE CLIMAX.

FRENCH TIPTON, - - - EDITOR.

PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY BY

The Climax Printing Co.

WM. G. WHITE, CHAS. S. POWELL.

PRICE PER YEAR, $1.50.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 30, 1889.

The Hon. Amos J. Cummings, who is to succeed Sunset Cox in Congress, is a well known newspaper man, and was with Walker in Nicaragua.

Louisville is fortunate in the possession for a season of Theodore Thomas, Comedian Crane, Oliver Dowd Byron and other celebrities.

A schooner was captured two miles at sea off Cape Henry, in the storm of Wednesday night, and the Captain by aid of a cork jacket swam ashore.

The Lexington Racing Association has decided to expend $80,000 in improvements before the next season. The weather last week was bad, but the attendance was good and some of the events were hotly contested.

Sunday was a day of fires. Selma, Alabama, lost $200,000, embracing an entire square; Decatur, Alabama, sustained a loss of $25,000; Huntington, W. Va., $20,000; and a steamship at New Orleans wharf, $10,000 worth of cotton. A number of other places suffered seriously.

THE TENNESSEE STYLE.

Hancock county, Tennessee, has long been noted for bloody feuds, and not a man has ever been hung within its borders. But a great change is about to take place.

A year ago a man named Sutton was waylaid and killed. Five members of the Bernard family were arrested on suspicion, tried, found guilty, and sentenced to death. The cases were appealed, but the Supreme Court of that State has affirmed the decision of the lower court, and the five men are to be hung on the 23d of November.

At the same time of the lower court at which the five criminals were sentenced, another man was found guilty of murder, and also sentenced to death.

What a glorious record that court has made. A similar one by the court of Harlan county, in this State, would be an untold blessing. Harlan is the bloodiest county in Kentucky, and its career since the recent term of court, held by the aid of soldiers, has broken its former record. We hear that a law and order party has taken the matter in hand and killed off several tough parties. That is the only way to redeem the county.

THE NAVASSA PRISONERS.

The U. S. Man-of-war Galena has landed at Baltimore with the six ring-leaders of the Navassa riot, and they have been placed in jail. The brig Romance and ally with 130 of the miners are hourly expected.

The Galena brought also two witnesses. One of them states that Dr. Smith, the acting Superintendent, fired the first shot, wounding one Phillips, and that his act brought on the riot. It will be remembered that the miner Davenport stated that officer Jones fired the first shot wounding Phillips. Also that the preacher Henson stated that the miners assembled and demanded a hearing from Dr. Smith, and that "immediately the officers fired indiscriminately into the miners, wounding four men."

We observe that no two of the miners, even the friendly ones, tell the same story, while the officers are unanimous in the statement that mining boss Roby was assaulted at the works and left for dead, and that officer Jones was knocked down and an attempt made on his life when he went to arrest the man who assaulted Roby, and that the miners were the aggressors at every point. The Government will no doubt prove that to be the state of case, when the matter comes before the court.

THE CENTENNIAL OF KENTUCKY RACING.

Last Friday was the centennial of horse racing in Kentucky, and the day was noted at Lexington where the races were in progress.

The centennial finds the interest in racing greater than ever before. More people are engaged in producing race horses, and racing them, than at any time in the history of the turf; more money is invested in that line, there are more race horses, and faster ones, and every reason exists that racing will continue to grow in importance and popularity.

The race horse is regarded more and more, not only as an animal of pleasure but of profit. Since the decadence of the cattle and wheat interests in Kentucky, all eyes are turning to the fast horse as the fittest occupant of our broad and fertile fields.

The race track is a child of evolution. From a temporary and sequestered spot where only a certain class of men congregated under no particular authority, it has grown to a permanent place, set apart especially for the purpose, improved with the expenditure of thousands of dollars, conducted by thoroughly organized associations, and visited by the best classes of people.

There are elements in the soil of Central Kentucky that fit this production of fast horses. Nowhere else do they grow to such perfection. Nowhere are there so many fine roads as we have, nor do there exist a people more capable of enjoying to the fullest extent fast horses and fine roads. Nor can there be found a country more beautiful to the eye than Central Kentucky, through which these fine roads run, and in which these fast horses grow.

The rab and his steed, immortalized in verse as endowed with Damonian and Pythian attributes, find a counter-part on every green field of Kentucky.

A DAUGHTER OF CONFEDERATE ADMIRAL SEMMES.

Happening the other day to be down to see a European steamer land her passengers, says the New York Star, I saw coming ashore a lady with a slight girlish figure, a pale, thoughtful, spirited face and a brisk step. I recognized her as the widowed daughter of the late Capt. Semmes, of the Alabama, who was, after his defeat in the fight with the Kearsarge, made an prisoner in the Confederacy. The daughter is now the Principal of a large school in Mobile, where her brother, Olive Semmes, an artillery officer under Gen. Dick Taylor, is a Judge of one of the courts. The old Admiral's Children are all tremendous workers.

National Gathering of Christian Church Representatives.

The annual meeting of the Missionary Society of the Christian Church convened in annual session at Louisville, last Tuesday, and continued until Friday.

President B. C. Hagerman and wife, of Madison Female Institute, Rev. C. P. Williamson and Elder J. W. Prather were present.

The societies represented were:

1. The Christian Woman's Board of Missions, Mrs. F. H. Jameson, of Indianapolis, Ind., President. Headquarters of Society, Indianapolis. Missions in Western States and Territories, Jamaica, Japan, India, China.

2. Foreign Christian Missionary Society—Charles Louis Loo, of Lexington, Ky., President. Headquarters, Cincinnati, O. Missions in Turkey, Japan, China, Holland and England.

3. General Christian Missionary Convention—N. S. Haynes, Peoria, Ill., President. Headquarters, Cincinnati, O. Missions in Western and Southern States and Territories.

TUESDAY'S SESSION.

Tuesday was occupied by the Christian Woman's Board of Missions. The report of the Secretary, Mrs. S. E. Shortridge, showed $5,675 raised by the members of the society during the year, and efficient work done by the missionaries in their several fields. The attendance of delegates was larger than ever before, and the hospitality of Protestant churches, without regard to name was extended to all.

Tuesday evening was given up to devotional exercises and brief addresses from representative workers in the missionary cause. A paper on "Prayer and Missions" was read by Miss Mattie Pounds, of Fredericktown, O. This was followed by earnest talks on the subject of missions by Revs. Cory Morgan, of Wabash, Ind., and W. F. Richardson, of Grand Rapids, Mich. Rev. J. W. Jenkins, recently a missionary to Jamaica, told how the work was progressing in that far off island. He appealed to the Board of Missions to redeem a pledge, made three years ago, to give $5,000 to the missionaries with which to build church houses there, $1,500 of which, yet remained unpaid. Several members set to work among the congregation, and in a short time had secured pledges for much more than that amount.

WEDNESDAY'S SESSION.

Wednesday morning the fourteenth annual convention of the Foreign Christian Missionary Society was called to order by President Charles L. Loo in the audience room of the First Christian Church. The meeting was opened by song service followed by Rev. J. S. Shouse, of Lexington, Ky., who read an appropriate address from the Scriptures. Rev. W. T. Moore, of London, England, formerly of Madison county, then offered prayer. Mr. L. H. Jameson, of Indianapolis, delighted the audience by singing a beautiful song.

Rev. D. P. Henderson, of Canton, Mo., next led in a short prayer. In introducing Mr. Henderson, President Loo paid a glowing tribute to the life work of the old preacher speaking in particular of his services as the first pastor of the Fourth Street Christian church of Louisville. In fact, he was the prime mover in the initial efforts to build the church and to him more than any one other person is due the magnificent church edifice that stands on the corner of Fourth and Walnut streets.

The President appointed the Standing Committee. The annual report of the Board of Managers, was read by A. McLean, the address of the Foreign Society to a large audience. During the session subscriptions for the support of the Society were called for, and the result was one of the most generous responses ever made to a religious gathering in Louisville, the books of the Secretary showing receipts to the extent of $14,270, when the report was made. The list was headed by the subscription of the students of Drake University of Des Moines, amounting to $1,300. It was on condition that it be used in support of a lady missionary to be sent to Japan from Drake University, and these conditions were accepted. Rev. T. J. Phillips, of New Castle, Pa., presented his check for $5,000, and the remainder of the total contributions was made up of life directorships at $500 each, and life memberships at $100. A number of small donations were also made, resulting coming from every State in the Union.

THURSDAY'S SESSION.

The convention was entertained for a brief time by an address from its President, Rev. C. L. Loo. The President's theme was missionary work, and he gave the subject some hard knocks in his straight-forward, practical way.

Rev. W. T. Moore, the representative of the society at London, England, then occupied the attention of the convention, speaking particularly of missionary work in the United Kingdom, which he represented to be in a flourishing condition. The Committee on New Work recommended that more missionaries be put in the field, and that missionary orphanages be founded.

Rev. A. J. Bush, of Texas, made an elegant speech in behalf of establishing missionaries in Old Mexico.

The Committee on Nominations of officers to serve during the ensuing year

made the following nominations, all of them being elected by the convention:

President, C. L. Loo, Lexington, Ky.; Vice President, J. Z. Tyler, Russell, Ky.; Recording Secretary, J. H. Hardin, Cincinnati; Treasurer, W. S. Dickinson, Cincinnati; Corresponding Secretary, A. McLean, President of Bethany College, W. Va.

At the conclusion of the addresses an appeal was made for donations to home missionary work, which was met with most gratifying results.

In a comparatively short time $10,500.25 was secured in pledges and cash, which exceeded the donations of the evening previous, which was thought to be unusually large. The largest individual subscription was that of Judge Thomas F. Hargis, of Louisville, which was $3,000. However, $7,500 of this sum is to be used in building churches in the mountain districts of Southeastern Kentucky, and the remaining $500 to go to the general missionary fund of the society. The second largest donation was $5,000 by Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Phillips, of New Castle, Pa. The Frankfort, Ky. Christian church, $1,000; Fourth and Walnut-street Christian church, Louisville, $500; Broadway Christian church, Lexington, Ky., $500; Paris, Ky. Christian church, $500. The total subscription of Kentucky churches alone amounted to $18,500. The total amount of pledges and cash donations to all the missionary societies during the convention aggregated $35,045, exclusive of the $7,500 subscription from Judge Hargis, which was reserved for a special purpose.

RELIGIOUS.

Georgetown is to have a new Catholic Church.

Elder J. W. Harding is to have a new church at Winchester.

At last account, Elder R. R. Noel had more than 30 additions at Broadhead.

The Woman's National Board of Missions, convened in Louisville, last week, and the reports read showed that the work at home and abroad are progressing with entire satisfaction.

Rev. Dr. W. E. Hatcher, of Richmond, Va., is conducting revival meetings in the First Baptist Church, preaching every afternoon at 3 o'clock, and at night at 7 o'clock. Everybody invited.—Lexington Gazette.

Rev. S. P. Chandler of Breathitt county is 83 years old the 20th of December next. He is one of the first Methodist preachers that ever preached in this part of the State, and is one of the best men living.—Campton Observer.

In the revision of the Liturgy, the Protestant Episcopal Convention passed an amendment to the form of marriage ceremony. The clause as adopted, which is intended to cover the question of divorce, reads: "And live together in holy love unto their life's end."

In the absence of the pastor who is aiding in a protracted meeting at North Fork, Ky., Rev. John W. Loving, pastor of the church at North Fork, will fill the pulpit of the Baptist Church in this place Sunday morning and evening next. Mr. Loving is a native of Virginia, a graduate of Richmond, (Va.) College and the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Of Rev. A. P. Cobb, of Missouri, who held a series of meetings here two years ago, the Stanford Journal says: "The meeting at the Christian Church closed Sunday night, the visible results being 10 additions. The invisible results cannot be overestimated. The evangelist, Rev. A. P. Cobb, has labored with an earnestness that has impressed all who heard him, and it is safe to say no more instructive series of sermons has ever been delivered here."

Elder Enos Campbell, who with his wife was visiting Versailles, is an own cousin of Alexander Campbell, his father Archibald being a brother of Thomas, the father of Alexander. Mr. Campbell is now 74 years of age, but looks younger. He has, until recently, been in charge of the Christian church at Walnut Hills, Cincinnati. Having married a sister of D. M. Ball, of this county, he located here about 1844, and conducted a Female Seminary for a year or two, in the house now owned by the Misses Lillard.—Versailles Sun.

The anniversary of the Woman's Department of the Church Extension Society of the Kentucky Conference, Methodist church, will be held next week in this city. The opening exercises will be at the Walnut Street Methodist church, on Tuesday evening, the 29th, at 7 P. M., with an address of welcome by the pastor and other exercises. Miss Sue A. Bennett, of Richmond, Ky., will be present as the Conference Secretary, and will represent the various interests of the society. The closing exercises will be held at the Walnut Street Methodist church, on Wednesday night, an address will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Morton, of Louisville, General Secretary of the Church Extension Society. Dr. Morton is an able and forcible speaker, and has charge of the entire work throughout the south and west. His address will be of one interest to all who hear him.—Danville Advocate.

The tri-annual national meeting of the Episcopal church of the United States, embracing the Upper House composed of Bishops, and the Lower House composed of delegates, adjourned in New York, last Thursday, after a session of three weeks. The pastoral letter, after calling attention to the pension fund for disabled clergymen, referred to the modern system of education, in which subject it said: "Education points the way to a higher and nobler civilization. We cordially commend the system of inexpensive and admirable schools founded by the beneficent, whose incentive is not earthly honor and reward, but the blessing of the Kingdom of God. Divine success is wrought by self-education. Upon civil service reform, it says the church does not undertake the warfare of the partisan, but it would leave an important duty undone if it did not exercise a care for the political as well as the ecclesiastical welfare of the State. It has come to pass that in the heat of party struggle the standards of political morality have been sensibly lowered, but purity and integrity in the administration of public affairs are strenuously demanded by the religion of the church as well as the patriotism of the land. Official place should not be won by vulgar incompetence. It is not the better price paid for political influence. The honors of office are the legitimate recompense bestowed upon citizens who have served their State, and should not be distributed among the incorruptible." Touching the industrial issue, the letter says: "It is painfully evident that the existing industrial system is not what it should be, as the despairing tone of those who have studied the subject evinces. Many have come to look upon industrial humanity as a commercial commodity. Human sympathy is not to be brought into play. Any social philosophy which eliminates the heart and soul of man from his doctrine is incomplete, and, as such, it is not to be considered as unchristian."

tion as it is unwise. To discuss the moral and spiritual factors which enter into social and industrial questions is part of the exalted office of the church." Referring to false doctrines preached in the church, the letter repudiates peculiar doctrinal views presented by individuals as emanating from the entire body. The church should not be made responsible for unreasonable speculation both in the Holy Committee and other branches of the ritual. The letter closes with a passionate exhortation for the unity and loyalty of the people to the church.

NEWS PARAGRAPHS.

Mr. C. B. Hill has sold the Beattyville Enterprise to Mr. C. C. Breed.

Miss Louie Duke, of Danville, was married at Independence, Mo., to Mr. Walter Gates.

The Hustler says "all kinds of business are increasing in the town of Jackson, Breathitt county."

Miss Mattie Lapsley, of Mercer county, and Mr. Ed. Patton, of Virginia, were married last week.

South American millionaires are cutting a wide swath in London. Colonel North, the Nitrate King, has a rival in Mr. Sanford, who made a vast fortune in Buenos Ayres. Sanford has purchased the old house of the Duke of Leinster in Carlton House Terrace and is converting it into a palace of the renaissance style. The marble stairs, mantels and walls will cost enormous sums. A firm of upholsterers has been authorized to expend $300,000. Even a London plumber has been given carte blanche.

The wedding of Mr. Emmet C. Harrison, of this county, and Miss Mary Battelle, of Pine Grove, Clark county, is announced to occur in the Presbyterian Church, at the latter place, on Wednesday, November 6th. The attendants will be Miss Elizabeth, of Pine Grove, Miss Jessie Taylor, of Lexington, Misses Lizzie and Emma Harrison, sister and cousin of the groom. Mr. Ed. Battelle, brother of the bride, and Messrs. Alvin Harrison, W. B. Middleton and John H. Bryant.—Shelbyville Sentinel.

A man who figured before the people of this part of the State a number of years ago and achieved quite a reputation for daring, etc., was in town on Thursday last. The three brothers, Hugh, James and Samuel, of Moreland, where he now pursues the evening of his declining years in quiet mercantile pursuits. Mr. Bridgewater will pull down the beam of 220. A book concerning this man would read like a novel. He seems to be holding his own very well, considering the quantity of lead which at various times he carried.—Danville Advocate.

In the autumn of 1789, two brothers, James and Samuel McElroy with their wives and little ones, came to visit their brother Hugh McElroy, he having the year previous settled where Springfield now is, they had come all the way from Campbell county, Va., by the way of Cumberland gap, and made this visit before going to their home beyond where Lebanon now is. The three brothers, Hugh, James and Samuel, had married sisters, Esther, Mary and Margaret Irvine. Their brother John who followed them to Kentucky died after a few years, unmarried. On the 16th of October, one hundred years later, the descendants of Hugh McElroy went over to join those of James and Samuel in the celebration of the day that marked the coming of their fathers. Several hundred kindred and friends met together on the farm near where the brothers had their first cabin home to join in making the day what it was to all, one long to be remembered.—Springfield News.

TWO FIRST LIENS, EACH PRIOR TO ALL OTHER OBLIGATIONS, GIVEN BY THE R. I. & B. RAILROAD.

Sic. 6. "Said Company agree that it will furnish sufficient cars to transport coal to any of its depots in Madison county, from any point on its line or extension thereof, at not exceeding three cents per bushel of seventy-six pounds, and that it will furnish sufficient cars to transport lumber, iron or stone from any point on its line or extension thereof to any of its Stations in Madison county, at not exceeding four cents per hundred pounds, and also coal at not exceeding 10¢ per car of 35,000 pounds, and further agree that there shall be no discrimination against freights destined to or originating at any of its Stations in Madison county, and if it shall violate any part of this agreement, the injured party shall have the right of action against the Company; and any judgment so obtained shall be a lien prior to any encumbrance that may be hereafter placed upon the road; and this Company further agrees that they will not employ convict labor in building said road through Madison county."

April 6th, 1888.

STATE OF KENTUCKY.

I, Thos. Thorpe, Clerk of the Madison County Court, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of section 6 of Madison county's subscription to the Richmond, Nicholasville, Irvine & Beattyville Railroad, as amended by the act of the Kentucky Legislature, passed July 1st, 1889, now of record in my office.

Given under my hand this 25th of October, 1889.

Attest: THOS. THORPE, Clerk.

By Jno. H. THORP, D. C.

"This is the first mortgage executed by the Railroad Company and constitutes a first lien on the property and franchises herein described and conveyed."

STATE OF KENTUCKY.

I, Thos. Thorpe, Clerk of the Madison County Court, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of a part of the mortgage from the Richmond, Nicholasville, Irvine & Beattyville Railroad Company, to the Central Trust Company of New York, Trustee, dated July 1st, 1889, now of record in my office.

Given under my hand this October 25th, 1889.

Attest: THOS. THORPE, Clerk.

By Jno. H. THORP, D. C.

Ringing Noises

In the ears, sometimes a roaring buzzing sound is caused by extraneous, that is, exceedingly disagreeable and very common disease. Loss of smell or hearing also result from catarrh. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier is a peculiarly successful remedy for this disease, which it cures by purifying the blood. If you suffer from catarrh, try Hood's Sarsaparilla, the peculiar medicine.

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla 100 Doses One Dollar

The Chief Reason for the great success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in the article itself. It is merit that wins, and the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla actually accomplishes what is claimed for it, is what has given it this medicinal popularity and sale greater than that of any other purgative.

Merit Wins Hood's Sarsaparilla cures Scrofula, Rheum and all Humors, Dyspepsia, Stomach Disorders, Biliousness, overcomes Tiredness, builds up Appetite, strengthens the Nervous System, builds up the Whole System.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists, 25¢ per bottle. Prepared by C. L. Hood & Co., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

20-29.

11

CONCERNING FARMERS.

In Harrison county, an extra good lot of mare mules sold at $70 to $100.

In Scott county, mare mules sold at $95; 1300-lb. feeding cattle, 3¢ cents.

In Lincoln county, a lot of fat beef-cattle sold at 3¢ cents; a lot of 2-year-old cattle at 2¢ cents; one lot of 1400 lb. cattle at 3¢ cents, and another lot, same weight, at 2¢ 3/4 cents; a lot of 1500-lb. cattle at 3¢ cents.

Laurens county, Z. E. Bush, auctioneer reports 100 cattle on the market. Seventy-five sold from 1¢ to 2¢ Eight or ten broke mules sold from $80 to $140 a head; 15 mule colts sold from $45 to $75. No horse trade. Large crowd out to a very dull court day.

Winchester Court—J. A. Ramsey, auctioneer, reports about 1,000 cattle on the market. The following public sales were made: Fifteen good 1200 lb. steers, $3.25 per cwt; 50 good 1200 lb. steers, $3.00 per cwt; 28 fair feeders, 1050 lb., $2.85 per cwt; 23 fair feeders, 1100 lb., $2.90 per cwt; 10 fair feeders, 1100 lb., $2.95 per cwt; 36 good yearlings, $3.00 per cwt; 25 common yearlings at $2.50 per cwt; 15 good calves at $13.00 per head. Other sales at about same figures. Nearly all offerings sold, but prices ruled lower than for many years.

UNION CITY.

Mr. John Hill returned from Louisville Friday.

James Wells is at his father's, Mr. William Wells, very sick of fever.

Miss Josie Walden, of Clark county, is visiting at her uncle's, Mr. E. Walden.

Services were conducted at the Baptist church on Sunday last at 11 A. M., by Rev. S. V. Potts. Also by Rev. E. Burnam at 3.30 P. M.

The Powell sale was on Saturday, 26. Horses low—from $25 to $100. Cows very low, $3 to $25. Oats, $1.25 per hundred. Corn, $1.35 per barrel. Hogs, $3.75.

STATE OF OHIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, LUCAS COUNTY S. S.

Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the city of Toledo, Ohio, and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CURE.

FRANK J. CHENEY.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. '89.

A. W. GLEASON, Notary Public.

HALL'S CATARRH CURE is taken internally and acts directly on the blood and mucus surfaces of the system. Send for circulars free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

Sold by Druggists, 75c. 16-20

Louisville Tobacco Market.

By Oliver & Durrett Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.

Sales on our market for the past week have closed amounting to 2,125 bales with receipts for the same period of 835 bales. Sales on our market since January 1st amounting to 11,435 bales. The crop of 1888, on our market to this date amounting to 80,235 bales. The offerings of Virginia tobacco this week have been composed mainly of very common grades and no new features have developed.

The following quotations fairly represent our market on Virginia tobacco: Trash (Dark) and damaged tobacco $2.00 to $3.00.

Colony Trash $3.50 to $6.00.

Common Lugs not colony, $4.00 to $6.00.

Colony Lugs, $6.00 to $9.00.

Common Leaf, $7.00 to $10.00.

Medium to good leaf, $10.00 to $15.00.

Select or wrapery leaf, $15.00 to $23.00.

LIVE STOCK MARKET REPORT.

By GREENE & EMBURY, Live Stock Commission, 114 East Third Street, Union Stock Yards and Covington Stock Yards.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, October 28, 1889.

SHIPPING CATTLE.

Good to Extra . . . . . $ 4 25 to 4 50

Fair to Good . . . . . 3 75 to 4 00

Common and Rough . . . . . 2 75 to 3 00

Good to Extra Cows . . . . . 3 25 to 3 50

Fair to Good Cows . . . . . 2 75 to 3 00

Common and Rough . . . . . 2 00 to 2 25

BUTCHER CATTLE.

Good to Extra . . . . . $ 3 25 to 3 75

Fair to Good . . . . . 2 75 to 3 00

Extra Fat Steers . . . . . 2 75 to 3 00

Fair to Good Steers . . . . . 2 50 to 2 75

Fair to Good Cows . . . . . 2 00 to 2 25

Common Cows . . . . . 1 25 to 1 50

Rough Cows, and Oxen . . . . . 1 00 to 1 25

BULLS.

Best Shipping . . . . . $ 2 50 to 2 60

Best Bologna . . . . . 1 25 to 1 50

Fair Bologna . . . . . 1 00 to 1 25

Common and Thin . . . . . 1 25 to 1 50

FEEDERS AND STOCKERS.

Good Extra Steers . . . . . $ 4 50 to 5 00

Fair to Good Steers . . . . . 4 00 to 4 50

Good to Extra Hogs . . . . . 2 25 to 2 50

Common and Thin Stockers 1 75 to 2 00

COWS AND CALVES.

Best Grades . . . . . $ 3 25 to 3 50

Fair to Good . . . . . 2 50 to 3 00

Common . . . . . 1 25 to 1 50

Best Calves . . . . . 5 25 to 5 50

Fair to Good . . . . . 4 50 to 5 00

NUMBER 20.

rise to the giddy height of thy and thou shalt be glorious here after; be false, fall, and I will thee, and thou shalt be accursed, oul shall remain in bondage till

when, in the slow flight of time, shall once more grow to good it shall again be free."
rew near, trembling and kissed him
brow. "May all these things co

"ay," he cried, "not me; but rather those whose will I do. And now go, my son, and ponder in thy heart, and in thy secret digest my words: and mark thou shalt see and gather up the downcast, and make thee ready for the battle;

net for thyself; thou art protected all ill. No harm may touch thee from thou shalt alone can be thine own I have said." I then I went forth with a full heart.
It was very still, and there was no rushing in the temple courts. I hurried through them, and reached the entrance region that is at the outer gate.
seeking solitude, and, as the gate opened to Heaven, I climbed the pylons high to Heaven, until at length I reached massive roof. Here I leaned my back on the parapet and looked forth.
I looked the round edge of the

He floated over the Arabian hills,
His rays fell upon the prison where I sit,
The temple walls beyond, and lit up
The images of the carved gods. Then they I struck the wide stretch of well-to-do — now whitening to the harvest, and
The heavenly lamp of Isis (the moon) passed
The sky, slowly did her rays creep down
The valley, where Sihor, father of the
Them, rolls on toward the sea.
And now the bright beams kissed
The river, smiled an answer back,
The mountain and valley, river, temple, and plain were flooded with yellow, for Mother Isis was arisen,
And she, the goddess, shone.

on of the earth. Beautiful it was,
beauty of a perfect dream, and so the hour after death. Mightily, temples towered up against the fast city. Never had they seemed so gra as upon that night, those an ness, before whose eternal walls self shall wither. And mine it w to rule this moonlit land; mine to ere those sacred shrines and cheris of their gods; mine to cast out enemy and free Egypt from the fo
let. In my veins ran the blood of that Kings who, sleeping in the tom valley of Tapti (Thebes), await the surroundings. My spirit swelled with as I dreamed upon this glorious day closed my hands, and there, upon I prayed as I had never prayed to the Godhead, who is called by names and in many forms made man

"O Amen," I prayed, "God of gods, been from the beginning; Let thine, who art, and of whom all are test out thy Godhead and gatherst in, in the circle of whom the divine are and are, who was from all time begot, and who shalt be till all time run unto me.

O Amen—Osiris, the sacrifice by are justified, Lord of the Region

...the, the ruler of the Ages, the Du-the West, the Supreme in Anarken unto me.

O Isis, Great Mother Goddess, Mother
Horun—mysterious Mother, S-house, hearken unto me. If indeed chosen of gods to carry out the pur-the gods, let a sign be given unto now, to seal my life to the life aetch out your arms toward me, als, and uncover the glory of your ance. Hear! ah, hear me!" And self upon my knees and lifted to Heaven.

And as I knelt a cloud grew upon me of the moon and covered it in a

CLOUD GREW UPON THE FACE OF THE
 Now in the city ceased to howl, a Silence grew and grew till it was he "Behold a sign! Possess thy patience, O Harmachis!"

 And even as the voice spoke a color touched my hand and left somewhat Then the cloud rolled from the face of the moon, and the wind passed, and all ceased to tremble, and the night
 the night had been.
 And as the light came back I gazed at which had been left within my was a bud of the holy lotus new ing into bloom, and therefrom came sweet scent. I gazed.

And as I caught thereon, behold! th passed from out my grasp and van aving me astonished.

[TO BE CONTINUED.]

---

BUCOLIC SIMPLICITY.

Good Woman Who Didn't Mind a Thing Like a Mouse.

The primitive ways of bucolic sim sometimes run against the refined to s-bred humanity, says the Wash

"Will ye hev long or short sweet asked the mistress of the first strang
 He didn't know just what he was mae'd in for, but ventured a pres long sweetening. His hostess di grimy forefinger into a pan of mammy sorghum sirup, withdrew a sticky burden, thrust it into the up, stirring it until dissolved, and over the decoction. The second

When Principal B. T. Janney was reigning in Virginia twenty-odd years ago, he stopped at a farm-house and asked for a glass of milk. An old woman brought him a pan thick with cream, which she set on a table. A peculiar bump was visible in the center of the pan, under the cream. The old lady peered at it through her spectacles.

"'Nother of them pesky mice,'" she exclaimed. She reached in and drew the mouse from his milky grave by the tail, and tossed it above the pan with one hand.

The writer has seen a dozen East Indian men in the city of London, and a skin one hundred eyes cowl in six miles a wagon. Seizing the slippery skin, with hands he would bite the head off between his strong, white teeth, and down the skin at the neck, and to the

A soap weed is now being utilized for making soap for market. A factory has been started at Guthrie and Wicksburg where the weed grows plentiful. The pioneers of the plains discovered the plant forty years ago. The root, with manipulation, is an excellent substitute for soap.

of thy de-
here and will assured, and
ere till that of time, the good and used him on ings come
fall thee,
but rather
ro, my son,
thy secret
sue what he dew of the battle.
protected
thee from own en-

Part The
 was none
 I hurried entrance to ate. And I were, to the prison's
 I reached
 my breast
 oria. And of the fall
 the hills, and
 re I stood,
 and lit up the
 in the cold
 well-titled rest, and as con passed
 creep down
 of the Land
 I Kissed th
 back, and
 er, temple,
 I

with white arisen, and s the dark
 it was, with
 and solemn
 ily, indeed.
 the face of
 so grand to ose ancient walls Time
 it was to sine to pre-cherish the ust out the
 the foreign ed of these he tombs of
 ait: the day
 elled within
 ous destiny,
 a, upon the prayed be-led by many gods, who ing: Lord of all are, who herest: It up

 divine once
 all time the
 all all time—

 e by whom ection of the
 the Dweller
 in Amenti,

 s, Mother of her, Sister,
 indeed I be
 the purpose
 n unto me,
 a life above,
 rd me. O ye your con-
 And I cast
 lifted up my

OF THE MOON.

show, and the
was heavy as ed up within the head. Then a seemed to beat about e within my thymself in a cold hand
sewath within
the face of sed, and the
he night was

I gazed upon
 within my hand.
 A new break-came a most cold! the lotus
 and vanished,
 [ ]
 CITY.
 I had a Little use,
 stoic simplicity
 refined tastes of Washington
 were traveled, recently,
 for dinner.
 expected—bacon
 n' bread, and

swootin'!"
stranger.
He was setting
a preference
between dipping a
pan of thick,
and drew it with
into the coffee
oil, and passed
and stranger
ire for coffee
they was com
odd years ago
and asked for a brought out
ch she sat ou
was visible in
er the cream.
ugh her spee
"nice," she ex
drew the vic

tail. Hold hand she took the other and
of cream. Mr.
ing the London
cleanliness that p rooted. He in each little thing like
y. "My folks
I been full of
in East Yankee
six minutes on very fish with the head under the 10-rib, turn and tear it off at ing utilized for
A footker took Wienia, Kan.
centually. The

THE CLIMAX.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 30, 1889.

The partridge crop is unusually large.

Mr. F. L. Wardner has built a nice residence on Clark street.

Report of Powell safe found in Union city items.

Joe Mackey makes an announcement in his issue. Read it.

The Glyndon will have a big dinner for next Monday, Court day.

Mr. Charles Clark bought ten head of 350 pound cattle last week at $2.50.

Miss Campbell and Mr. Flora will sing duet, "Mating," at the Breddell concert.

The male quartettes at the Breddell concert will be the feature of the program.

Mr. James Steffen, of Dayton, O., has accepted Mr. Lamb, of Newport, at the Glyndon.

Read notice of Mr. S. S. Parkes to residents of L. E. Franchi, found elsewhere in this issue.

Senator Roberts bought a quantity of corn, last week, to be hauled and fed to his hogs at $1.25 per barrel.

The young people and children of the Christian church will give an entertainment Thanksgiving evening.

Mr. W. Tandy Chennault will sell publicly on Saturday the 6th of November his farm, stock, crop, farming implements.

Hon. A. T. Chennault has been appointed by Governor Buckner a delegate to the National Silver Convention at St. Louis, Nov. 26th.

Mr. H. J. Broadbent will have a sale of personal property on next Saturday, November 2nd, at the Buck Terrill place near Rogersville.

Squire William Willis weighed to Mr. H. B. Tombs on last Friday, 30 hogs that averaged 332 lbs. They were the same sold at the sale at $4.

Jolly Ridge is seriously afflicted with typhoid fever, there being six or eight cases. Dr. Phil Roberts makes daily journeys to the stricken locality.

H. L. W. & Co.

Observe the next clock opening ad. of H. L. White & Co. You never saw any thing like it.

Back Numbers.

We mean to keep on hand a supply of back numbers of our excellent story, Claptrap, and persons can be supplied at any time. Subscriptions are already rolling in.

It's To-Day.

The display of handsome seal-skins, plushes and novelties in woolen goods, embracing cloaks, saques, jackets, &c., will be to-day and to-morrow. It is worth your while, even if you do not wish to buy, to call at Crooke, Bennett & Urmoston's and see them.

No Time Lost.

A married couple from Jackson county, on their way to Indian Territory, stopped at a boarding-house near the depot, in this place, the other day. The next day the wife was increased to three, and the next week the journey was resumed, all parties being well and happy.

Diphtheria.

The State Board of Health has issued a circular on the care of premises infested with diphtheria, and the proper conduct of nurses and other persons in charge of patients afflicted with that dread disease. The circular in full is published in our supplement.

A Distinguished Visitor.

Mrs. Campbell, of Bethany, W. Va., widow of the famous Alexander Campbell, bell founder of the Christian Church, is visiting her grand-daughter, Mrs. B. C. Hagerman, at Madison Female Institute. She is in good health and her mind is as clear as ever. Her conversational powers have not abated, save defective hearing, which she compensates for by her wit.

Lady Superintendents.

The Bourbon News says: "The people of this county are well pleased with one term of Mrs. Amanda Miller as County Superintendent of Public Schools, and the Democrats nominated her last Saturday for re-election. The neighboring county of Lincoln also has a lady Superintendent at the recent election in Covington and Newport all of the six lady candidates for School Trustee were disastrously defeated."

Won't Uncle Billy be Plying?

The valuable services of Captain Billy Wilkerson as Jailer of Fayette county, have been suitably rewarded. It has been decided by the Fayette county Jail Committee to accept the plan of McDonald Bros., of Louisville, for the new jail. It will be constructed of stone and steel, and will be five stories, counting the tower, in which the hospital will be located. It will have 45 cells, and will be heated by hot air.

Winter Bonquets.

The editor of the Bourbon news, who has an eye for the beautiful, writes: "The autumn leaf craze is now on at full blast, and the ladies are gathering them in all directions for the purpose of making winter bouquets. They take them through a crystallizing process by using beeswax and gum arabic, and then sprinkle them with diamond dust. Our censurers maples are now shedding them with all of the beautiful tints imaginable."

Changed His Name.

The Beattyville Enterprise copies our report of the former Richmond man, Will Clark, soon to be hung at Beattyville, and adds: "You are mistaken as to the name of the man who was sentenced to be hung at the recent term of our Court. His name is Wm. Embury. The time fixed for his trial for this execution is November the 29th 1889."

When he lived here he was called Clark, and his father goes by that name. A much more, and the poor fellow will climb the gallows stair.

The Soprano Mr. The "Pops."

Those who attend the popular concert at Music Hall to-morrow afternoon will be afforded the opportunity of hearing a charming soprano in Pauline Breddell. She is a vocalist of great prominence in the musical world. She sang at the Danmore concert and also with Gilmore. She won honors in the Mason grand concert in St. James Hall, London. She sang under the great Eckart in Berlin and also with the Richard Verst concert, and the Julius Stern symphony orchestra. It should be taken as a great compliment by the management to the Cincinnati public that so eminent a vocalist has been secured for the "Pops."

The Times Star, 26th.

Madame Breddell sang Sunday evening to 5000 people at Music Hall, and was wildly applauded.

Houses and Lots Sold.

Mr. Jack Freeman has sold to Rev. Morris Evans, pastor of the Methodist church, the beautiful new residence on Fifth street, corner of North. The price was $4,000 cash. Dr. Evans and family will remove at once from Stanford, and take possession.

Mr. George Myers has sold to Mr. R. L. Gentry the nice frame residence on Second street, next to the Major S. Turner residence. Price $3,500.

Mayor J. S. Collins has sold for Mrs. Lena Cardwell Fox, her brick residence on Smith-Ballard street, to Mr. Ed. D. Ballard. Price $4,500.

Deatherage Sale.

Auctioneer Bush reports the sale on Friday, October 25th, by W. L. Crutcher, as trustee, G. and S. A. Deatherage. Bad day, but fair crowd. Twenty cows and heifers, shorthorns, registered, $15.30. Fat hogs, $3.75; one yoke oxen, $77; one mule, $15; 2-year-old filly, $121; Vandal filly, $100; mare and Vandal colt $236; bay mare, $105; colt, $55; black horse, 3-year-old, $275; bay horse, $157; yearling Vandal, $156.

One hundred and eighty acres of land sold to John Baldwin at $4 per acre, equal to cash. Excellent and abundant grain. Prices all good, except for the shorthorns, which were distressingly low.

Eight Hundred and Thirty-Five Pupils.

The schools of Richmond have more pupils than any place in the State, except Lexington, Covington, Louisville and the large river towns in Southern Kentucky. To date the matriculants number 835. This includes all the schools which number ten, counting the University as one school. These figures will be a surprise to many of our home people, but we give the names and numbers: University, 136; Female Institute, 130; Mrs. Forman, 45; Miss Russell, 35; Mrs. Williamson, 48; Miss Bronston, 19; Prof. Harris's public school, 127; P. E. Clark colored public school, 290; colored primary schools, 25. Total 835. This is a record of which much larger places might be proud.

Physical Culture.

Miss Nannie Barbee, during her three months' visit in Chicago the past summer, improved the opportunity by taking lessons in physical culture and physical development under Miss Jennie's watchful teaching, who in connection with her sister, Miss Jennie Miller, has done so much to improve, strengthen and develop womanhood by regular special exercise and by a change in the style and mode of wearing of ladies' garments. Miss Barbee has been solicited by quite a number of the ladies of our town to take charge of a class and teach the system of physical culture as used by Miss Jennie, and already a class of some fifteen or twenty has been promised her. Physical culture is not only leads to development of strength and to good health, but to grace and ease of movement and ease of position both in walking and when in the parlor. We hope Miss Barbee will be well patronized in this movement.—Danville Advocate.

Will Further Enlarge.

Some time ago THE CLIMAX announced that Myers & Clark would build a Collins street extension to their planing mill, forming an L with the main building that fronts on Main street, thereby surrounding the Barlow Flouring mill which they also own. Half of the extension is daily increasing in connection with the brick mill will be occupied by a room for holding force pumps with hose and other attachments for extinguishing fires. The space on Main street between the planing mill and flouring mill will be occupied by the office. A tramway has been built from the planing mill to the wheat warehouse and that spacious structure has been converted into shops to run in connection with the mill. They are doing this work whenever they can find time from their regular custom work, which is daily increasing, rendering these extensions necessary.

New Life Stock Company.

Mr. W. R. Letcher, of Richmond, Mr. W. R. Bradfield of the Kentucky Horse Exchange, and Mr. Ed. Tipton, of the Trotting Horse Breeders Association, have formed a company for the purpose of conducting auction sales of stock, buying and selling on commission, keeping and training horses and transacting the general business of a stock agency. A large farm will be operated in connection with the sale stable and park, where stallions will be kept and mares kept and bred as may be desired. There is no doubt, whatever, that this is a strong company, and the movement they have made has brought forth great interest to stock breeders and dealers in Kentucky. There is room for such a concern. The training business has become immense, and nothing adds more to the salable value of stock than a little training on the track, such as is close to and used in connection with the Horse Exchange. The new company is a success already, if there be anything in names and the reputation for ninety years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high office. In fact his father held the position for twenty years, this is the first instance where the office was filled by any one the same session of the first nomination. This election places Capt Smith in the line of promotion, and three years hence is entitled to the office of Grand Master. His father held that high

